THE ANGLER'S NOTE-BOOK

AND

NATURALIST'S RECORD:

A REPERTORY OF FACT, ENQUIRY, AND DISCUSSION ON FIELD SPORTS AND SUBJECTS OF NATURAL HISTORY.

The ANGLER'S NOTE-BOOK is a magazine for recording notes and observations on the habits and natural history of fish, bird, and beast, on adventures and captures, on tackle and lures, on grounds and quarters, and on those thousand and one matters, literary, artistic, and scientific, of interest to Anglers, Sportsmen, and field Naturalists.

The ANGLER'S NOTE-BOOK will open its pages to all notes of this character, whether new or old, if records of original observation and of general interest and permanent value; it will contain questions and answers of correspondents on all subjects coming within its scope; and also notices of men, deeds, and books of the past and the present.

The ANGLER'S NOTE-BOOK will be printed in a form which admits of its being readily bound and kept for future use. The want of such a book of reference has long been felt. The weekly sporting papers, invaluable on their own ground (upon which the "Note-Book" will not trench), fail to supply it. To bind them is costly; they are cumbersome to handle when bound; ordinary book-cases are not large enough to hold them, and patience is soon exhausted in hunting through their closely packed pages. Year by year thousands of interesting notes are thus practically lost. With the advent of the "Note-Book" this need no longer happen.

The ANGLER'S NOTE-BOOK will be printed on good paper, in small quarto form, and issued in a neat wrapper, on the 1st and 15th of the month. Twenty-four numbers will form a volume and be provided with a title-page and a copious index, in which all the facts gathered during the year will be properly classified and made available for easy reference.

Subscription: Annual, 12s.; Quarterly, 3s. (post-free).

EXTRACT FROM A LETTER RECEIVED BY PUBLISHERS.

"I am glad to find a periodical after my own heart is about being started at last, and I wish 'The Angler's Note-Book' great success. As an old and ardent trout-fisher of over forty years' experience, I have often desired to record in some permanent form, and where they would not be smothered in foreign matter, facts and incidents relating to fish and fishing and kindred subjects which have ever and anon fallen under my observation. The form of your publication seems to offer the very medium required. One is afraid of having anything to do with such huge weekly volumes as pass nowadays for sporting papers. I have long since ceased to wade through them to find my ha'porth of bread. Surely there must be many of my way of thinking who will welcome and support your projected publication warmly."

Just published, medium 8vo, cloth, gilt top, price 21s.

By Mrs. R. KNIGHT-CAUSTON. Crown 8vo, 6s.

"A remarkably clever and well-written classical story.
Throughout the author displays a perfect knowledge of the period of which she treats, and much poetical feeling and dramatic power. Certainly since 'Fabiola' there has been nothing better than this story. There are certain scenes in the book quite equal to any of Bulwer-Lytton or Wiseman's classical stories, and greater praise cannot be lavished on it."
—Morning Post.

"BOY MILL." A Story.

By Capt. RICE, R.E. With Frontispiece. Crown 8vo, 5s.

"Boys have presented to them, in the character of the hero,
a noble, manly, upright youth, whom every right-thinking lad must admire, and sympathise with, and, in admiring, gain a little of his integrity and principle."—Standard.

"Interesting and well written. A book for high-spirited boys, young and old."—Broad Arrow.

THOROUGH. Being an Attempt to show the Value of Thoroughness in several departments of Christian Life. By the Rev. Sir EMILIUS BAYLEY, Bart.

Second Edition, Revised and Corrected. Crown 8vo, 6s.

"A practical volume which will be read with pleasure by those to whom it is addressed, whilst the sincerity which marks every page and the thought which it suggests will make that reading profitable to both young and old, and we are glad to recommend it to our readers."—John Bull.

SCRIPTURE and SCIENCE not at VARI-

ANCE. By the Rev. Archdeacon J. H. PRATT. Seventh Edition, Revised. Small crown 8vo, 3s. 6d.

"The Archdeacon's reply is firm and candid, and has one great quality which we earnestly recommend, that it is decided in tone. He does not flinch from vindicating the full plenary inspiration of the Word of God in general, and specifically the plenary inspiration and inerrancy of the first eleven chapters of Genesis. He is not blind, but discriminating in his maintenance of this position."—Christian Advocate.

"Demonstrating that while the Dean undertook to instruct others, he was himself but a casuist in matters of grammar."—Edinburgh Review.

"Coming out for wool, in fact, the Dean went back shorn;
rushing forth to teach, he went home taught."—Record.

2 BAD ENGLISH EXPOSED.

Criticism on the Errors of Lindley Murray and others.
Cheap Edition, the Sixth, fcap. 8vo, limp cloth, 2s.

"Well worthy of the careful study of all who aspire to write
